Dear Erik,

By way of follow-up to your important article, "DeFrancisco Quiets a Critic" (1/23/03) and the Syracuse Post-Standard's powerful editorial, "A Flawed Process: Judicial Nominees Should be Subject to More Public Scrutiny" (1/27/03) -- both of which I forwarded to The New York Times, which then, on February 7th, initiated its "FIXING ALBANY" editorial series -- attached is my letter regarding the upcoming March 17th meeting with Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman DeFrancisco.

I invite you -- on behalf of Chairman DeFrancisco's constituents who are readers of the Post-Standard -- to be present at the meeting, so that you can report -- and the Post-Standard can editorialize -- on his commitment to addressing the documentary proof of the corruption of the processes of judicial selection and discipline, which I will be presenting.

Thanks.
